

Year 7 work

This is an impressive piece of work from a Year 7 student. They worked hard on the assessment, and then clearly responded to feedback.

L/O: To use persuasive language to present ideas
 Title: Assessment
 Date: 12/3/20

Year 7 SECURE
Objective	Self	Peer	Teacher
A variety of sentence structures	-	✓	✓
Some subordinating conjunctions (eg. if, when because)	-	✓	✓
Basic punctuation (? ! , caps) accurate	✓	✓	✓
Commas in lists, occasionally clauses	-	-	✓
Topic sentences usually begin paragraphs	✓	✓	-
Simple introduction and conclusion	✓	✓	✓
Relevant ideas developed in some detail	✓	✓	-
Specific vocabulary chosen for purpose	-	✓	✓
Grade achieved:	S2

Are you unsure ^{you finish} what to do after school? Are you scared you'll lose your job and have nothing to turn to? Well in that case, join the army today! Strong opening.

One good reason why you should join the army is because you will get an amazing salary. Imagine all that money you would be so lucky and rich. Think of how proud your family would be if you brought all that money home that leads me onto my second

L/O: _____
 Title: _____
 Date: _____

point, which is about how proud your family will be

Your family is precious to you. What would you without them? They provide food, home and money. If you join the army imagine how proud they would be. They would be happy that they could jump over the moon, full of joy. So you must join the army as it is your duty. If you choose not to join the army, your family would be grieved and upset. Your poor, innocent and kind parents, & family and friends may die; all because you did not join the army.

MRI → My final point is you will be a hero. Now who does not want to be a hero, save innocent, lonely, young civilians who here wants to do a good deed, something right. To save people you can protect thousands of people who have not done wrong. So, join the army.

What are you waiting for? Come to war and do a good deed. You will get a good salary and you will make your family proud. Come don't be left behind. Just, join now! I am impressed with your effort - well done!